

Personal Information Processing Policy

The koodsinc (hereinafter referred to as the "Company") shall comply with the personal information protection regulations under the relevant laws and regulations to be observed by information and communication service providers, such as the Act on Promotion of Information and Communication Network Utilization and Information Protection, etc., the Act on the Protection of Communication Secrets, and the Act on the Protection of Personal Information, and shall do its best to protect the rights and interests of users by establishing policies for processing personal information under the relevant Acts and subordinate statutes.

This personal information processing policy applies to users using services (hereinafter referred to as "services") provided by service platforms managed and operated by the company (including the web, mobile web, and apps, hereinafter referred to as "platform"), and includes the following.

Article 1 (Collected personal information items and methods of collection)

① The company collects the following personal information from users in order to register and manage users' membership, provide various services, handle grievances smoothly, and provide customized services.

Classification required collection items

Mandatory name, email address, password for membership registration

② In addition to the personal information items in Paragraph 1, IP Address, cookies, visit date and time, service usage records, bad usage records, and device information may be collected during the process of service use or app execution, and email addresses or phone numbers may be collected during the process of receiving and processing customer inquiries.

③ In the process of using the service provided by the company, if it is necessary to identify the user and confirm his/her identity, age, name, date of birth, gender, domestic and foreign information, mobile phone number or ipin number, encrypted identification-linked information (CI), and duplicate registration confirmation information (DI). In the case of minors, legal representative information can be automatically created and added and collected.

④ The company does not collect sensitive personal information (race, ideology, creed, political orientation, criminal records, medical information, etc.) that may violate the basic human rights of users.

⑤ The company does not use the collected personal information for any purpose other than the purpose of collection, and when the purpose of collection and use is changed, separate prior consent is obtained from the user.

⑥ The company may collect the user's personal information in the following ways.

- Home page, mobile device, written form, fax, phone, consultation board, e-mail, event application, delivery request
- Collecting through the generative information collection tool

Article 2 (Purpose of Use of Collected Personal Information)

The company utilizes the information collected from users for the following purposes.

- Personal information is used for membership registration, smooth customer consultation, provision of services promised with users, personal authentication according to service provision, purchase and payment, provision of company service usage details, and registration of payment methods.
- Personal information is used for member management, such as confirmation of membership intention, age confirmation and consent of legal representatives, identification of users and legal representatives, identification of users, confirmation of membership intention, and handling inquiries or complaints.
- Personal information shall be used to verify the user protection and service use environment, such as restrictions on the use of users who violate laws and policies set by the company (including terms and conditions of service use), prevention and sanctions against acts and unauthorized acts that interfere with the smooth operation of services, such as illegal use of services, prevention of account theft and illegal transactions, delivery of notices, preservation of records for dispute mediation, etc.
- Personal information is used to provide new services that reflect users' paid service purchase (payment) and service use propensity, interest, and use record analysis based on service provision, access frequency analysis, function improvement, service use statistics, and statistics according to demographic characteristics.
- Use personal information for the purpose of events and promotions, such as providing event information and advertising information (when agreeing to provide marketing and advertising information).

Article 3 (Period of Retention and Use of Personal Information)

In principle, the company maintains the user's personal information until the member withdrawal. However, the company holds it for a specified period even after the member withdrawal in the following cases to prevent disputes related to transactions.

A. Reasons for preservation of personal information according to the company's internal policy

- Records of fraudulent use (unfair use means ① transactions of methods or contents that violate the policies (including terms and conditions, etc.) set by the company, ② transactions of methods or contents that infringe on the rights or interests of the company, members, and third parties, and ③ transactions equivalent to '① and ②')
- Reason for preservation: Management of illegal use and measures Preservation period: 1 year

B. In the case where an investigation, investigation, etc. is in progress for violating the relevant laws and regulations: Until the relevant investigation and investigation are completed

C. Where a bond-debt relationship remains between the company and the user: Until the settlement of the bond-debt relationship is completed

D. If it is necessary to preserve it in accordance with the provisions of related laws such as the Commercial Act and the Consumer Protection Act in Electronic Commerce, etc., the company shall preserve the user's information for a certain period of time prescribed by the relevant laws and regulations.

In this case, the company uses the information it preserves only for its preservation purposes, and the preservation period is as follows.

- Reasons for preservation of records related to consumer complaints or disputes: Preservation period of the Consumer Protection Act in Electronic Commerce, etc.: 3 years
- Reasons for preservation of records concerning withdrawal of contracts or subscriptions: Preservation period of the Consumer Protection Act in Electronic Commerce, etc.: 5 years
- Reasons for preservation of records on payment and supply of goods, etc.:

Preservation period of the Consumer Protection Act in Electronic Commerce, etc.:
5 years

• Reasons for preservation of log records related to service use and access:
Preservation period of the Communications Secret Protection Act: 3 months

Article 4 (User's Rights and Duties)

① The user may exercise the following rights.

1. A user may exercise his/her right to view, correct, delete, request suspension of processing, etc. of personal information at any time, and may withdraw his/her consent to the use of personal information through the membership withdrawal procedure. At this time, the company shall confirm whether the person who made the above request is himself/herself or a legitimate agent.

2. The exercise of rights under the above 1. may be made to the company in writing, by e-mail, by imitation (FAX), etc., and the company shall take action without delay. Provided, That the name, resident registration number, and foreigner registration number may not be corrected, and the change of name due to the change of name or the change of resident (business) registration number due to administrative problems may be allowed exceptionally.

3. Even if there is a request for the user to stop processing personal information, the company may reject the request to stop processing in the following cases.